Wild Rock Golf Club and The Woods Family Course
Offer Recession Buster Rates for Area Residents

Wisconsin Dells, Wis. –Wild Rock Golf Club and The Woods Family Course at the Wilderness Hotel & Golf Resort are trying to help local golfing enthusiasts beat the recession by offering great golfing deals for residents of Sauk, Columbia, Juneau and Adams Counties.

Starting immediately and running through July 29, local golfers wanting to play Wild Rock, the championship course that Golf Digest ranked #6 on "America's Best New Public Courses of 2010" list can do so for a $49 per person Monday – Thursday and Sunday after 1 p.m. This rate includes cart, GPS, range and tax.

Anyone looking for a perfect place to learn the game of golf can do so on The Woods Family Course, which consists of 9 holes in a non-intimidating setting, for only $14 per person Monday-Thursday and Sunday after 1 p.m. This rate includes cart and tax. Golfers wishing to play a second round so they can golf a total of 18 holes can do so for an additional $5.

Tee times must be made in advance by calling 608.253.GOLF (4653). A driver's license to prove local residency is also required upon check in. Other great specials can be found throughout the season by checking out www.wildrockgolf.com.
