Wild Rock and Woods Executive Courses Open Dells Junior Golf Program, New Woods Season Pass and Rock Challenge to Keep Course Busy

WISCONSIN DELLS, Wis. – The mild spring has golfing enthusiasts cheering as both the Wild Rock and Woods Executive Courses at Wilderness Resort are already open for the season.

According to Pat Stein, who was named the director of golf operations for the Wilderness in 2014, "It's a really exciting time for both of our courses.

"Wild Rock was recently named 'One of the Top 15 courses in Wisconsin for 2015' by Golf Digest and 'One of the Best Resort Courses in America for 2015' by Golf Week. These are wonderful recognitions.

"The mild winter and earlier spring compared to a year ago was also a blessing for both courses. It's great to see them greening up and golfers back out on them again."

Stein adds there are three opportunities local golfing enthusiasts should consider taking advantage of this year.
